Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

The Archdiocese of Vancouver Policy on October 4, 2016 indicated, "The faithful who are Extraordinary Ministers of Communion must be persons whose good qualities of Christian life, faith and morals recommend them. Let them stride to be worthy of this great office, foster their own devotion to the Holy Eucharist and show an example to the rest of the faithful by their own devotion and reverence towards the most august sacrament of the altar. No one is to be chosen whose appointment of the faithful might find disquieting" (Immensae Caritatis, 6).

Those who are called to exercise this ministry should reflect on the privilege of serving their brothers and sisters in the faith. They should acknowledge their service with true humility and gratitude. They must receive the gift of the Eucharist with grateful hearts and share that gift generously and joyfully with others, both in the ministry of giving Holy Communion and in their daily lives.

An Extraordinary Minister must be a person who is striving to develop a personal and intimate relationship with Jesus Christ: in the Eucharist and through a life of prayer. This may include spiritual activities such as daily attendance at Mass, visits to the Blessed Sacrament and taking part in other forms of Eucharistic Adoration. Where ever Eucharistic Adoration is a practice in the parish, the Extraordinary Ministers play a crucial role in inculcating the importance of this devotion in the rest of the parish family by their own participation. Simply put, they should seek, like all Christians, to cultivate holiness, especially through frequent confession and personal prayer, especially before the Blessed Sacrament.

Those who minister the Bread of Life and the Chalice of salvation should develop a sense of compassion, justice and charity in their daily lives.

The Extraordinary Ministers should also seek to have a sound knowledge and appreciation for the doctrine of the Church, especially through study of Scripture and the documents of the Magisterium.

Sewing Bee

Attention ladies and gentlemen we are happy to announce the sewing bee has started back up again on Tuesday January 16th from 10am-12pm. We will meet in the conference room in the Parish Centre.

Stewardship Reflection

January 14th, 2024 - 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, 'What are you looking for?'" - John 1:38

When we recognize who we are, it's easier to find what we are looking for. Once we see ourselves, and others, as children of God, we spend less time looking for the material comforts of the world. Instead, our hearts long for something deeper that can only be filled by God. Ask God daily how He wants you to live the life He intended for you.

Camp Homewood

We are happy to announce that registration is now open for this year's Camp Homewood Youth Retreat on February 2nd—4th. This camp is for youth in grades 7-12 and the theme this year is "Seek Him". Assumption Parish will pay for any youth in our parish who would like to attend this year. Please contact Rob at the rectory for registration information.

Help our School With Your Recyclables

Did you know that you can take your empty cans, bottles and milk cartons over the bottle depot on Duncan and donate your empties to Assumption PTA. All you have to do is tell the attendant at the Duncan recycle depot, "credit this to Assumption PTA". Every little bit does help. Our school thanks you for considering this!
